

PRECINCT OFFICERS

One of the most important items of business at a precinct meeting is the election of precinct officers. The following officer positions may be elected.

PRESIDENT

The South Carolina Democratic Party's campaign organization begins with the Precinct President. Being a Precinct President means understanding and promoting our Party's message and utilizing the tools the County and State Democratic Parties provide to organize your precinct, and educate and turn out the voters. It involves a consistent commitment and it's important to be active both in and out of campaign season.

As Precinct President, your responsibilities include but are not limited to the following:

- Attend county meetings and actively participate in party events and activities
- Recruit volunteers to assist you with canvassing your neighborhood
- Register voters in Democratic areas
- Persuade voters to vote for Democratic candidates based on issues that matter to them
- Promote early and absentee voting
- Recommend Democrats within your precinct to work as poll managers
- Hold precinct meetings at the start of the election season for the purpose of adopting resolutions and selecting delegates to county and state conventions
- Be familiar with VoteBuilder and the information on people in your precinct
- Update useful data on voters such as telephone numbers and email addresses in VoteBuilder
- Encourage voters to get out and vote on Election Day

FIRST VICE PRESIDENT

The 1st Vice President must be of a gender other than the Precinct President. In the absence of the President, or in the case of their inability to act, the Precinct First Vice President assumes the duties of the President.

SECOND VICE PRESIDENT

The 1st Vice President must be of a race other than the Precinct President. They assist the President in organizing the precinct.
