

State Executive Committee Persons Responsibilities

- The state executive committee persons are the liaison between the county and state democratic parties.
- The state executive committee is charged with the execution and direction of the policy of the state party, subject to party rules, the principles of the Democratic party, and instruction, by resolution or otherwise, as the state convention may adopt.
- The state executive committee persons must be committed to the Democratic Party and attend the state meetings or send an elected alternate.
- The state committee nominates the presidential electors. Any vacancy in the state ticket of electors or the state's representatives on the National Committee of the Party shall be filled by the state committee.
- The state committee is authorized to investigate the charges of fraud and illegal practices.
- The state committee shall ensure that county executive committees publicize fully and in such a manner as to assure notice to all interested parties a complete description of the duties, times, and places of all meetings at which party officers, delegates to county, state, and national conventions will be selected.
- The state executive committee persons report to the county party information from the state party.
- The state executive committee persons must be an active, positive role model for other party members.
- The state executive committee persons must have the ability to communicate weekly with the state party and with the county party, preferably via email.
- The state executive committee persons must be easily accessible to state and county party officials, preferably via cellular phone and email.