

Troy Cormier

Candidate Statement

Troy Cormier is running for the South Carolina state house because he is passionate about making a positive impact on his community and bringing about positive change. He believes that by serving in the state house, he can contribute to the betterment of South Carolina by addressing important issues, advocating for the needs of the people, and working towards creating a better future for all residents. Troy Cormier is dedicated to serving his constituents and making a difference in the state government.